9:10 a.m. - 10:00 a.m. Committee on Lottery - Capturing, Optimizing Power of Lotteries

During the most recent fiscal year, U.S. lottery sales topped $110 billion, with more than $30 billion returned to state jurisdictions in net proceeds to benefit important causes ranging from education to natural resources to tax relief to veterans programs. Some forecasts estimate domestic lottery sales will grow another $50 billion by 2029. This growth comes at a time of increased competition from other forms of gaming, pressures facing traditional brick-and-mortar retailers, and well-capitalized new market entrants seeking to leverage new technologies to enhance (or possibly displace) traditional lottery transactions. How are lottery operators responding? How are major national multi-state games positioning themselves to meet these challenges? Which visions are likely to expand overall sales and/or reach a broader demographic base? What are the friction points with current lottery regulatory structures? How do competing visions best achieve other public policy goals, such as addressing problem gambling?

Chair: Representative Al Williams, Georgia; NCLGS President-elect

Presenters:

Mary Harville, President and CEO, Kentucky Lottery Corporation

Larry King, Vice President Corporate Public Affairs, Brightstar Lottery

Tom Metzger, CEO, Lotto.com

Ferhan Hamid, Chairman, VA Lottery

10:00 a.m. - 10:50 a.m. General Session - The Video Gaming Terminals Debate

The Video Gaming Terminal (VGT) industry has a complex economic and cultural relationship with other regulated gaming interests, particularly the brick-and-mortar casino industry. This Committee will discuss the positive and negative economic and social impacts of VGTs on their communities, regions and states.

Chair: Representative Chris Kannady, Oklahoma

Presenters:

Matt Bell, President and CEO, Casino Association of Indiana

Ivan Henry Fernandez, President and Executive Director, Illinois Gaming Machine Operators Association

Matt Hortenstine, General Counsel, J&J Ventures Gaming, LLC

Jeff Morris, Vice President, Public Affairs & Government Relations, Penn Entertainment, Inc.

10:50 a.m. - 11:20 a.m. Networking Break

11:20 a.m. - 12:10 p.m. Special Committee on Taxes and Revenues

As the federal spigot closes, states are scrambling for new sources of revenue. In this effort to find money quickly, what are the opportunities for and threats to regulated and unregulated gaming operators and suppliers? From Massachusetts to Maryland to Ohio to Mississippi, legislators and governors wasted no time in seeking huge tax hikes on existing markets, while iCasino and iLottery bills have been introduced and advanced with increasing success. In this unpredictable era for governments, industry and investors, what is in play and what is still a bridge too far for incumbent interests, elected officials and voters?

Chair: Representative Christie Carpino, Connecticut, NCLGS Vice President

Presenters:

Cesar Fernandez, Head of US State Government Affairs, FanDuel

Brad Fischer, Counsel, Orrick; Representative of the Sports Betting Alliance

Matthew Oyster, Chief Legal Counsel, Ohio Senate

Brian Sigriz, Director of State Fiscal Studies, National Association of State Budget Officers

12:10 p.m. - 1:45 p.m. Lunch - Keynote: JB McCuskey, Attorney General, West Virginia

1:45 p.m. - 2:35 p.m. Committee on Casinos

"To iCasino, or not to iCasino – is that the question?" As the iCasino and brick-and-mortar casino expansion debate heats up around the country, our Committee convenes experts from all sides of this issue. The presenters will cut through the clutter of social media and news reports to focus on the central question: How can states retain the best of the past as they chart the future? What are the long-term impacts of shifts in policy on technology, capital investment, employment, urban development and other policy goals?

Co-Chairs: Steve Geller, former Senator, Florida; NCLGS Founder and General Counsel and Representative Steve Bashore, Oklahoma

Presenters:

Shannon McCracken, Senior Director of Government Affairs, Churchill Downs

John Pappas, State Advocacy Director, iDEA Growth

Ryan Soultz, Vice President Government Affairs, Boyd Gaming

Jason Gumer, Corporate VP & Associate General Counsel, Monarch Casino & Resort, Inc.
